Beat Saber v0.13.1 Released:

Hello everyone!

You asked, we listened - 'Crab Rave' by Noisestorm has been brought to Beat Saber thanks to our friends at Monstercat today! So jump into the game and enjoy the rave!

Additionally, this update comes with:

- Few small fixes and tweaks here and there.

. New Free DLC - Dark and Light, Shard of Faith is now available on Steam:

Gaia was corrupted and torn apart by the darkness. Ganareth, the Gods' land, has long been shattered; Shadow shrouds the universe, jeopardizing Gaia and Archos.

Now it is time we unite and stop the fight among ourselves. Following the United Army, we travel to the corrupted Ganareth's Shard through the ancient portal.....

Shard of Faith is the first expansion to Dark and Light. Players will join the expedition force traversing to Gaia, the mother planet corrupted by darkness, and to Ganareth, the land where Gods used to lived in. Splendor was no longer visible as the entire land was cast into the magical universe. Cities are shattered in ruins. Yet we are still able to hear the Gods' word of encouragement, inspiring us to find the ancient altars, find their believers, and with the help of new races, defend the encroaching dark force.

We've been dedicated to the perfection of our game during EA, fixing bugs, optimizing performance, iterating art assets and engines. At the same time, we are hoping to present more about Dark and Light to our adventurers, a larger universe that once lived in grandeur. That is why we bring Shard of Faith out, a part of Dark and Light that not only has the storyline and a brand new map, but also revamp and optimization in art and codes. These optimization is expected to be implemented into all the maps in full release.

Servers Maintenance and New Servers. v1.1.1.4:

- Improved the Neon environment visuals
- Fixed and improved rain effects (fixed mist and improved rain visibility)
- Added rain and lightning into the Neon mode
