About This Game

LIMITED EDITION: ONLY 5 000 COPIES WILL BE SOLD, AFTER THIS THE GAME WILL BE UPDATED TO THE STANDARD EDITION, AND THE EXCLUSIVE ACHIEVEMENT WILL BE REMOVED

Dodge some cars! Swat a fly! Minitime is a fast paced, challenging and fun collection of different minigames. Everything from abducting a cow to flipping a pancake, it has something for everyone. Themed chapters, endless mode and custom mode awaits you, how many points can you rack up?

The cow is a majestic creature. It may not have the grace of a horse, neither the camouflage of a chameleon, but what it does have is the exact biological signature required for our experiments! The spaceships are already on their way! Mount your gun and shoot them down! NO! Not the spaceships, the COWS! They're coming right for us! Plant bombs in our sheep, and place them by the cows. The aliens won't get away this time. Throw the spare bombs down the mineshaft, Old Jameson down there won't mind

BREAKING NEWS
A surviving alien has been spotted running down the main road! How will this affect the golf tournament?!
In other news, piracy is making a comeback, and the cows ghosts want revenge for what we did to them. Can we truly forgive ourselves for what we have done?

No cows were harmed in the making of Minitime.

English

It's very fun for about 10 minutes but grows old very fast. Would love for each minigame to be a lot longer and maybe a short explanation of what you're supposed to do the first time a player tries it. Love the audio and most of the art style!

P.S. For me the price is a little too high for me to recommend compared to the amount of content
P.P.S. Price would probably be perfect if the minigames lasted longer :-). It's quite a fun game but DAMN some games are hard! And there is no explanation so you have to figure out for yourself how to win it :D. I'm morally obligated to give this a postive review due to family relation with one of the developers. hey yo pretty fun game :)
